Transcriber's Office

March 22, 1999 LB 495

seem to me that for once you've got something that could give them pleasure, and at the same time do some good. Let them get their little milk money. Let the schools conduct lotteries. I am sure you could easily lure these children to spend their lunch money by telling them you might win everybody's money here in this school, and they'll buy their little lottery tickets. But you don't want to do that. You know it's wrong and you're not going to make it clean by trying to spend it in this manner. Again, it was asked by your leader, who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean thing? No, not one. You don't put new wine in old bottles. Well, their bottles then were skin, and after they shrunk all up because they were old, if you put new wine in it, as it fermented it expanded and it would tear the bottle. It would tear the skin. He also said, you don't take new garment, new cloth, and patch an old garment with it.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because when that shrinks, then it will tear and make the tear worse. They called it a rent. It will rend the garment and the rent is thereby made worse. And you all just sitting around here puffing and wheezing and blowing and talking about all this good work that you're going to do with this gambling money. Oh, I feel so self-righteous. Oh, I feel superior. I am superior because my principles guide my vote and yours don't. I say get the preachers out of here. I don't care what church they belong to, and you all say keep the preacher here. Why? You don't practice what he preaches. Jesus said, why call you me, Lord, Lord, and don't do what I tell you to do? Let's get with it, brothers and sisters. Let's bracket this bill and think about the wickedness being bred or spawned in this Legislative Chamber.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Schimek, you're recognized on the motion to bracket.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. I just love it when I have to follow Senator Chambers. Senator Stuhr, I would like to ask you a few questions because I do have questions about what we're doing here, and...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Stuhr, would you yield?
